RETIREMENT FROM RACING EARNED BY FLYING FAIRY

Last Season's Queen of the Turf Has Seen Her Best Days.

By Vincent Treanor.

CAIT, E. B. CASSATT'S Flying Fairy, the queen of the turf last season, has seen her best days. It seems almost a shame to dim the lustre of her great career on the turf by further defeats. Yesterday she was defeated until Butwell on Bayberry Candle was ready to go to the front and then the good old Fairy crumpled up in a manner which must have started tears in the eyes of Capt. Cassatt, who loves her. The Captain and his trainer, Simon Healey, would have given anything to see Flying Fairy win just once more for no other reason than to have her closing career marked by victory. Johnny McTaggart, her jockey, also looked for the distinction of landing her in front as he did once before in the Bowie Handicap. As he was lifted into the saddle in the paddock before the fourth race some one said: "Bring her home, Johnny," and the little lad replied: "You bet I will," and affectionately patted the Fairy's neck. "She's insured for $10,000," said Capt. Cassatt at this, "and even if he doesn't bring her home, I'll get the money, but I'd rather have her than the $10,000. The Captain was figuring on a possible accident that might prevent McTaggart's finishing on the 'apple of his eye.' Trainer Healey says he can't account for the defeat. He says that "She does all I ask of her in the mornings," he said, "but simply won't run in the afternoons."

Savage Needed Money to Pay Doctor's Bill, Which Spurred Him On to Victory Over Reich.

Copyright, 1915, by The Press Publishing Co. (The New York Evening World.) NECESSITY is a hard task-master. Necessity made Jim Savage beat Al Reich. As Jim tells the story, he started out to become a first-class heavyweight, with some idea that in time he might go after the title in that class. But when he won a few fights easily he thought he could go on winning without doing the hard work of training. So he loafed. Loafing was pleasant, and he loafed when he should have been preparing for matches with better men than the ones he had whipped. The result—he slipped back. His great fights in which he stopped Frank Moran and Tom Kennedy were forgotten. He lost confidence in himself and his winning streak was broken. But a few months ago Jim went to Texas and from there to Chicago. Every day for over two months he slugged with the big fellow who was to win the championship from him, Johnson. He was to work hard. Necessity laid him by the collar, for if he didn't work hard, keep his wind in good shape and his muscles right, and get his old boxing skill right up to the top notch, big Jim would hand him a daily whalloping. And Savage didn't care to be whalloped when there was only a few dollars in it. So he got himself into condition. Coming home again after the Willard-Johnson fight, he might have fallen into his old ways. He was again; might have lived along the shore for the summer where the swimming was good and training light. But he necessarily worked hard. Tom Jones, who has Tom Sharkey lashed to the mast as a person of economical habit, handed Savage only a few dollars. He was to have had for training Willard. And Savage, having a family, needed money. On top of this, his little boy was thrown from a cart by a playmate, struck the sidewalk on his head, and in a few days developed spinal meningitis and then double pneumonia. He was to have had medical attendance for the boy. You can't get that without money. He decided that he must fight, and win while he could. He fought Al Reich, Jim Coffey and Al Reich. Get me the toughest of the lot. I'll fight harder than I ever did before in my life."

Gil Nicholls, With Total of 218, Leads at End of Third Round

Wilmington Pro's Card, as Result of Doing Round in 71, One Stroke Better Than Hagen's, With McDonald, 220, Third, and Jim Barnes, 221, Fourth.

(Special to The Evening World.) Fox Hills Golf Links, Chifton, S. E., N. Y., July 8. GIL NICHOLLS, a veteran Wilmington professional, led the field by one stroke at the start of the final round of the Metropolitan open golf championship here today. Nicholls, in wonderful form, played the third round in 71 strokes for a 218 total, one stroke better than Walter Hagen, former National titleholder, his nearest opponent. Bob McDonald, the young Buffalo pro, jumped in third place with 220 while Jim Barnes, the tall western champion, was fourth with 221. The remainder of the field, as a result of a big shake-up, trailed many strokes behind the leaders. The third round was disastrous for many of the stars who crowded in the lead yesterday. Many fell victims to the lightning fast greens and in this number was John J. McDermott, the little fellow who made such a sensational come-back after a year's absence from the links. The former champion's best was a 74, which put 7 strokes behind Nicholls for the lead. Tom McNamara, runner up to Jerry Travers in the national open championship, Willie McFarlane, the brilliant young Scot from Aberdeen; Martin O'Loughlin, Alex Smith, George Sargent and Isaac Mackie all killed their fine chance of leading the field home by slumping and falling far back from the front. Gil Nicholls was a notable exception to the generally poor playing. The veteran Wilmington star had another of his sensational golfing spells and ripped off a 71, the best score of the entire round. Nicholls didn't do very well on the outward journey. He took 3 putts on the short third and was bunkered on the 567 yard sixth where he went one over par. Turning for home, however, the veteran cut loose and did the last 9 holes in 33 strokes. At the 224 yard twelfth, Nicholls walloped his tee shot so straight that the ball just missed dropping in the cup. Again at the 295 yard seventeenth, he shot his drive to within 12 feet of the play and got a 3. Nicholl's card: Out 4 5 4 4 3 6 4 4 4 3 71 In. 4 4 2 5 4 3 3 4 2 3 71 Most of the gallery trailed after Walter Hagen and they saw marvelous playing follow spots of indifferent work. The former champion, playing steadily, was out in 88, a fine 3 on the first and a sensational 2 on the short fifth helping out a great deal.

King Cole May Rejoin Yankees Within 2 Weeks

CLEVELAND, July 10.—When the advance guard of Yankees arrived yesterday it was rumored that King Cole may rejoin the New York team within two weeks. The former Cub pitcher has been out of the game on account of an operation performed early in April.

From Last Place Brooklyn Has Jumped to Within Few Games of Leaders—Giants Home for Long Stay.

By Bozeman Bulger. There are likely to be some warm words between McGraw and Herzog of the American League who reached the West and the wild and woolly boys are here to tackle the Eastern department of the National warfare begins promptly at 1.30 o'clock this afternoon. There will be double-headers here, and by nightfall most any club is likely to be leading the second division. There is also a chance of the Cubs being routed out of first place. Over in the American the Red Sox are within one game of the White Sox, and with the Tigers to pick on, it should be considerable battle. The races are tightening up to where there is hope of baseball having an old-time scrap after all.

ster Dooin ought to prove a big help to Chief Meyer.

According to unofficial figures, which have been made up from the box scores printed in the daily papers, Fred Merkle is now leading the National League by a small margin in hitting. In the past week he has clouted the ball at a rate of something like 500. These figures may prove to be incorrect, but it sounds good for the present, anyhow.

FISTIC NEWS AND GOSSIP

By John Pollock

Joe Mandel, who has been fighting in splendid form as far as year, is one to be watched with his manager, Tommy Walsh. Mandel and Walsh are coming here for a little vacation, having moved from Canton, O., in Mandel's car. Walsh may sign up Mandel for a fight at one of the local clubs. Scotty Monelli, manager of Johnny Dundee, told the writer last night that he has practically matched Dundee to meet Joe Rivers, the Mexican lightweight, in one of the three ten-round contests to be put on at the next show of the Broadway Sporting Club at Eldora Field, in Brooklyn, on Friday evening, July 10. Phil Bloom and Matt Wells may clash in another bout. Three clubs will hold boxing shows tonight. At Brown A. A. of Far Rockaway, Dan "Porky" Fynn meets Battling Levinsky in the main go of ten rounds. At Long Acre A. A., Grand and Orchard Streets, Paul Doyle vs. Eddie Hoffman, Young Marshall vs. Danny Davis, and Jimmy Sullivan vs. George Butch, in ten-round contests. At New Polo A. A., of Harlem, Babe Davis vs. Al Maston, Buddy Ryan vs. Eddie Clifford, and Tommy Martin vs. Johnnie Dolan. Eddie Healy, who was Mike Gibbons' manager for a number of years, has decided to give up that will hold his first show at St. Paul, Minn. Healy will stage his first entertainment on Monday night, and has matched Tom Gibbons, a brother of Mike, to meet Billy Miller, a promising middleweight of that city, in the star bout. Harry Pollock, manager of Freddie Welsh, the world's lightweight champion, has decided to give Welsh a vacation until Labor Day. Freddie has taken part in twenty-two fights in a year. Welsh left for California last night, where he will take things easy. His next bout will be with Charley White at San Francisco, for which he has already been offered $15,000. Harry Stott, the premier referee of boxing bouts of Milwaukee, has been selected to judge the ten-round go between Frank Farmer, the Oklahoma middleweight, and Jimmy Clobber, the crack Western middleweight, which will be held at Omaha, Wis., on next Monday night. Stott refereed all the important battles that have been held in Milwaukee so far. Jack White, brother of Charlie, and Jimmie Turner, a world champion, will clash in a ten-round bout next Thursday in a ten-round bout. John Weismann, the crack ten-round boxer, today to be contested at the Broadway Sporting Club of Brooklyn next Tuesday night. In the first, Silent Martin, the music middleweight, will go against Frankie Sotter, while in the window Harry Rivers, Paul Doyle vs. Eddie Hoffman, and White vs. Clobber, will take on the Morality of Syracuse, N. Y. An effort is being made by John Weismann to arrange a match between Charles "Young" 101 Ebbett, the crack ten-round boxer, and Walter Lewis, if the contest is clinched, the men will probably meet in a ten-round bout at Ebbett Field in Brooklyn on Friday evening, July 10. Johnny McFarlane, the Bronx lightweight, and Farmer Sullivan, will be the stars in the main bout of ten rounds at the show of the Olympia Club at Brooklyn. The late was matched today by Vicky Donohue,
